

Biology 111
Mr. Eugene Field
Patterson Campus

General Information:

Course Description from MJC Catalogue:

Introduction to the principals of life, including reproduction, heredity, development, evolution, historical development of biology, molecular biology and ecology. Not open to students who have completed BIO 101. Not a substitute for BIO 101. Lecture/Laboratory. (CSU, UC) (CC Biol 17)

Materials to be supplied by Students:

Text: Starr, Cecie, Biology, Concepts and Applications - 7th edition‡
(ISBN-paper 0-495-18835-2, hard cover 0-495-18836-0)

Lab Book: Hard back Composition Style book with graph paper (Staples)

Binder: 3 hole ring binder paper

Ruler: with metric measurements

Index Cards: 3 X 5 and 4 X 6

Miscellaneous: Pens, pencils, high lighters, Scantron (882-E)

Out of class assignments for which you will be responsible.

Current event articles: From magazines and newspapers (2 each Tuesday for 10 weeks)

Record of all assignments: Keep a current record of your grades in lab book

Scientists, written and oral report: To be done on a scientist that contributed knowledge to the field of biology

Attendance: mandatory. Roll will be taken every session.

After two missed meetings student will be dropped.

Web Page: <http://home.evansinet.com/unclgene/mjc.html> click link to MJC

Email communication: mrfieldbio111@yahoo.com

Class Participation

Material covered - mandated

Pace of the course: fast, if you miss class you will miss much material

Revision of the course outline and assignments*

All Assignments are due on a specified date and it is final - no late assignments

The importance of Time Management

Almost no time for review

Labs will be graded

All relevant questions will be answered as time permits

Student suggestions: Discuss with me privately

Cell phones: off-- No texting in class

Tests are difficult. Be sure to do all assignments to get the best grade you can.

MBIO-111- 3792 General Biology (access code 8687)

‡ 5th 6th or 7th edition is acceptable

* All assignments & dates are subject to change

Aug 08
grey